Sisters of Tomorrow

ABOUT DELTA ACADEMY

Delta Academy is a program for young girls ages 11- 14 who are interested in developing their potential to succeed. This program, sponsored by Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., St. Louis Alumnae Chapter is designed to enhance the lives of our African-American young ladies, providing them with role models of adult women in non-traditional careers, and meaningful opportunities for community service and leadership. How will girls face the challenges of tomorrow? How can they compete in the economy of the future with yesterday's skills? Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, St. Louis Alumnae Chapter, is committed to involve itself in the lives of girls 11 to 14 years of age, Leading them in the 21st Century!

PURPOSE

- Δ To be a catalyst for academic excellence in the lives of young girls.
- Δ Dispel societal myths that cause low self- esteem among young girls.
- Δ To promote sisterhood as it relates to relationships with peers among young girls.
- Δ To provide opportunities of leadership and service learning for young girls.
- Δ To expand the thinking of our girls about possible careers and educational goals that include, science, math, technology and non-traditional careers.

PROGRAM DATES

Delta Academy 2014 – 2015 will meet the second Saturday of each month from 10:30 A.M. – 12:30 P.M.
